Dear Brett:

Thank you so much for making our holiday party so enjoyable and entertaining. Working a small party must be every comedian's nightmare but you were not only funny but truly impressive at picking up cues that enabled you to make the humor personal to the staff members present. I was stunned when Brad introduced you as the new President of the company. I had no idea he would do that. Your instant response was worthy of the very best improve clubs in the city! You completely convinced most of the crowd before launching into your vision of the future of the company...which, I must say, was hilarious.

Your relaxed, intimate style truly enhanced the flow of the party. I received nothing but compliments from the guests and I would recommend you for any event without reservation. If ever you should ever need a reference, please don't hesitate to contact me.

Again, thank you so much for your contribution to our holiday party.

Very warmest regards,

Elaine Baker
